Revenue

InSPE's revenue consist of the following main revenue streams: Contributions UT, Ticket Sale, External Funds, Sponsoring, Participation Fee, Work actions and Unforeseen Income.

1. Contributions UT

InSPE has received €10.000,00 from UT Contributions. This amount comes from one source: Sports & Culture. They gave us this amount to hire rehearsal spaces at the Vrijhof.

2. Tickets Sale

There was no project in this book year, so no tickets have been sold.

3. External Funds

Provincie Overijssel donated all the requested money for Fiddler on the Roof to InSPE. This means there is €5.513,30, which is now marked as revenue under 3.1 Overijssel.

4. Sponsoring

There was a crowdfunding campaign for InSPE. With this campaign, InSPE raised €740,00.

5. Participation Fee

There is no project in this book year, which means no participants, and no participation fee.

6. Work Actions

No work actions have taken place.

7. Unforeseen Income

InSPE received €265,12 from Unforeseen Income. "De Verstrooiers", a theatre association in Enschede stopped and decided to donate €250,00 to Stichting InSPE. During Fiddler on the Roof, some group pictures were made and printed. In total, 42 photos were sold for €0.36 per photo. This generated an income of €15,12.

Expenses

The expenses of InSPE can be divided into six main streams: Performances + Rehearsals, Professionals, Production Costs, Promotion, Other Costs and Unforeseen Costs.

1. Performances + Rehearsals

For the performance and rehearsals of The Addams Family, InSPE spent €2.407,50 on the licence costs (€2.407,50) The licence costs consist of €802,50 as an advance of future royalties and €1605,00 as rental fee for the music.

The €10.000,00 are the costs for rehearsal rooms during Fiddler on the Roof, the previous project.

2. Professionals

There was no project in this book year, so no professionals to pay.

3. Productions Costs

There was no project this book year, so no production costs have been made.

4. Promotion

For promotion, InSPE invested in a course about marketing and communication (€1500,00) and promoted The Addams Family project at the Saxion fair (€50,00). In total, €1550,00 was spent on promotion.

5. Other Costs

In total €1,423.49 was spent on other costs. This consisted of food for the technique crew during the build up day (€34,00) and welcome gifts for the professionals of The Addams Family (€8,74). The bank costs were €180,75, of which is €4,11 in iZettle fees, €146,72 for the ticket system of Fiddler on the Roof and €29,92 PayPal costs. InSPE made a reservation of €1200 on continuity.

6. Unforeseen Costs

The unforeseen costs reached a total of €439,79. This includes €165,29 for afterparty costs, €49,99 for an external hard drive for InSPE, €60,00 rental of a 'borrelruimte' to discuss the new plans for the foundation and €17,99 for printing group photos for Fiddler on the Roof.

The remaining amount under this post is spent on the current project. This includes €6,48 for bookkeeping essentials, €130,04 for board clothing and €10,00 for printing sheets for the auditions.

Assets

- The expected payment of participants now is €250,30. This money InSPE stills owes from people who were involved in Fiddler on the Roof who either need to pay for their merchandise, their participation fee and/or group pictures.
- There is a difference of €1,08 of ticket sale and income for InSPE at Fiddler on the Roof.

Liabilities

- The reservations are for continuity of InSPE and expected running costs, like costs for the bank account and webhosting;
- A reservation still exists for the payment of the choreographer, who has yet to submit an invoice;
- Other Creditors are printing costs, which have been declared at the end of this book year and they will be paid in the beginning of October 2022.

Equity

InSPE has built up to €7.871,36 equity, accomplishing a large part of the long-term financial stability plan to reach €10.000,- in financial reserves.
